CONDITIONS OF SALE.

Please Read Sale Terms Before Bidding.

This is a bona-fide public sale, for prompt cash settlement, and irresponsible persons who are not sure whether they can pay for what they bid on. are asked not to bid. The cataloguer has taken special pains to describe each lot accurately. Errors will be corrected, but he reserves the sole right to decide upon any claims. No corrections or refunds will be made, and no lots can be returned, unless the bidder submits his case in writing within 30 days of the date of the sale.

Coins and medals are sold at so much per PIECE, and no lot will be separated. You cannot buy a few pieces out of a lot but must buy all of it. The auctioneer will accept no bid under 10 cents to start a lot where that lot contains only one piece; nor will he accept any advance under 5c on any lot containing but one piece; after the price has reached $2. no advance under 10c will be accepted on any lot containing one piece; after $5.00 the bid must advance 25c each time; after $10 no bid under 50c.

Our rules regarding lots containing more than one piece will remain unchanged and the same as before.

Auction sales are strictly for cash. Parties unknown to me and bidding for the first time, must give bank or other reliable reference, or their bids will not be executed.

Forward your bids as early as possible, as thousands of bids have to be entered. Do not make ridiculously low bids, such as 10c. and 15c. on foreign silver coins worth several times over as bullion. Write your bids plainly, with a pen if practicable.

Where the number of pieces in a lot is not given after the description, there is but one piece in the lot.

Be sure you bid on the lot you wish to buy. We cannot correct such errors.

All coins, etc., are genuine unless otherwise described.

A charge of 5% will be made to cover packing but where the parcel is bulky an additional packing charge will be made. No charge made for bidding except for lots actually purchased. Remit by money order or New York draft.

If any further information is required as to valuation of lots, or how to bid, please write the cataloguer. THOMAS L. ELDER.

Important Notice. We keep two books of the sale recording each lot as sold, and we will not accept any sale records from outsiders. Our records are final.

No priced catalogue will be furnished of this sale.

OUR FIRST FALL SALE, SEASON 1928-9.

With an interesting series of collections, including the properties of Messrs. Hastings, See, Henry and Carson, we open our 1928-29 season of Coin and Curio Sales, and ask for your continued interest, promising you some of the most interesting sales we have yet offered.

We are holding this present sale on Friday and Saturday, September 28th and 29th, being the earliest date we have held a Fall sale in many years. Our first Auction Sale was held on September 30th, 1904, twenty-four years ago. Our sales have continued unbroken since and number over two hundred. The present offerings are rich in fine and rare coins, ancient, mediaeval and modern, American, European and oriental. Together with this assemblage is offered a large group of interesting relics of the ancients, the Indians, etc. The curios include a fine collection of Cut and Polished Gem Stones, some interesting beads both ancient and modern, genuine Egyptian Scarabs, Babylonian seals, tablets, arrow-heads and the like. The coins include about every country on the globe and a large assortment of paper money belonging to the Hastings and other Collections. There is a large offering of Civil War Tokens and Store Cards, some rare Hard Times Tokens, Private Gold coins, a fifty dollar gold piece, Four Dollars Gold, Rare War Medals, Ancient Gold, Silver and Bronze Coins, Oriental and Roman gold coins, and a large collection of United States $10 and $5.00 gold pieces, with many of the rare mint marked coins. We have divided the sale into two sessions, the first, which consists of Lots Nos. 1 to 775 inclusive, will be held on Friday afternoon, September 28th, next, and the balance of the catalog will be offered the following day, Saturday, the 29th. Your careful attention to this catalogue and sale is requested. New bidders are requested to read sale terms. The goods are not sold on approval and must be taken and paid for. Room buyers will kindly check their lots on delivery as no corrections will be made after the coins are taken away from the desk. We will adjust complaints of mail bidders according to our terms, but our decisions in any disputes are final. No lots put up and sold out of order at the sale. and no lots will be exhibited after the sale starts. The features of the sale are given on the following page. New bidders please send cash deposit or bank reference.

NOVA EBORACS FOR FERRY FARE IN 1787.

The Albany, N. Y., "Gazette," for Thursday, June 21st, 1787, includes not only advertisements offering slaves for sale, certain cures for consumption, "Curious flowers, bulbous roots and seeds," and a plentiful supply of "West India Rum," but gives some curious extracts from a "city ordinance," for regulating the ferry across the Hudson river, which reveal that labor troubles, unwilling ferry-men and some passengers loath to pay their fare, had to be reckoned with. The ferry fees were listed under the rather uncertain term of "coppers." These "coppers" were likely the then recently issued "Nova Eborac," or New York State cents, dated 1787, bearing the bust of Liberty or the goddess New York. The objects listed for fare give us an insight into the things most commonly transported in that distant day, and suggest not automobiles or flying machines, or radios, but rather a primitive life and proximity to a howling wilderness filled with savage animals, Indians and trappers. "Every stipple of flour, wheat or other grain cost" "one copper" to ferry across the river. Each person passing over "except a sucking child," paid "two coppers." The same rate also applied to a variety of things such as a live calf or hog, a dead sheep or lamb, a firkin or tub of butter, an empty chest or trunk, a saddle without a horse, "a dozen pairs of shoes or boots," and so on. A barrel of sugar, molasses or rum cost "four coppers," while a hundred weight of lead, pewter or other metal, went over for the same rate. "Six coppers" had to be paid "for a dozen steel traps." Judging from the number of barrels of pelts shipped annually from Albany the fur business was largely engaged in and profitable. "All other articles, and things not enumerated" (which one could imagine to have been considerable) were "to be charged for in the same proportion to the rates above specified."

Any person refusing to pay the fees designated had "to forfeit and pay the ferry-man treble the rates above mentioned." This rule doesn't appear so one-sided as we read "if the ferry-man shall exact or take any greater price for ferriage (except in the morning before sun-rise or in the evening after sun-set, in which case they are entitled to double ferriage) they shall forfeit and pay for every offense twenty shillings." The ferry-man was obliged "according to the statute," to keep at least two ferry-boats and a scow; two whereof to be constantly employed by four able hands," certain evidence that late eighteenth century ferry traffic was considerable. In case the ferry-man "neglected his calling or disobeyed the rules" the corporation was authorized to remove him and "dispose of the ferry to some other person." His job was no bed of roses, for in addition he was required "constantly from sunrise to sunset to attend and come and go with the ferry-boats, wind and weather permitting, or shall forfeit and pay twenty shillings for every neglect or refusal." His hours of work, which must have numbered at least twelve, do not bear a close resemblance to the present union standards. All of these forfeitures and penalties were advertised to be "recovered from the Mayor, Recorder or any one of the Aldermen of the City."

MEDALS ON THE FOUNDING OF LOUISBURG.

Louisburg and the great fortress of that name in Cape Breton, were commemorated by important medals which give the date of founding as 1725. Obverse, A bust of Louis XV to left, with his name, and title. Reverse, A view of the fortress with buildings in the centre, and houses grouped around them, wharves, a lake, land and a grove of fir trees. In the harbor are seen various types of ships. There were several dies made for this medal. This fort, the greatest of the time in the New World, was the scene of stirring actions, great sieges and bombardments, and was first conquered by the English under Warren and Pepperell, only to be given back to France under a later treaty. It was later captured by the British and held by them thereafter. Francis Parkman in his romantic and charming historical works gives fascinating accounts of the great struggles leading up to the capitulation of this great fort of Louisburg.

THE EARLIEST FRANKLIN MEDAL.

Obverse. Benjamin Franklin LLD. Bust of Franklin to left in wig and coat. The reverse, curiously enough, is plain. The dies were cut by William Mossop, the elder, of Dublin, a noted die-sinker, who died in 1804. The occasion of the striking of this, the earliest known medal to Franklin, was Franklin's reception of his degree of doctor of laws, at St. Andrews, Edinburg, and at Oxford, prior to 1762. In 1753 he was elected a member of the Royal Society and presented with the Copley medal. This medal is in Mr. Elder's private collection, the finest Franklin medal collection in existence, and numbering over 100 pieces. Another interesting fact I have discovered is that the striking of the Wayne, DeFleury and Stewart medals for the capture of Stony Point was done under Franklin's direction.

THE DEXTER 1804 DOLLAR.

This noted piece was sold by S. H. & H. Chapman in 1885. J. W. Scott was the purchaser, for J. V. Dexter. The price realized was $1,000. The introduction to the catalog states "The 1804 dollar will be the great feature of the sale and no doubt will cause spirited competition—it is probably the finest known."

THE GERMANTOWN MEDAL.

A fine example of this very rare British award medal for the battle of Germantown in 1777, was in the sale held by Bangs & Co. on June 10th and 11th, 1885. The medal shows Chew's house, which had been occupied by some companies of Col. Musgrave's regiment and protected by the thick stone masonry they defied the severe American fire of muskets and cannon until the American forces, almost on the point of a great victory, became confused in the foggy weather and retreated with loss, after a brave and spirited fight in which hundreds were killed on both sides. This battle demonstrated to the British commander the ability of the Americans to fight, therefore the moral effect of Germantown was very great. In this battle Lt. Col. Laurens, A. D. C. to General Washington, made a daring attempt to capture the house of Chew. With his volunteers he rushed up to fire the building, applying a burning brand to the principal door. By almost a miracle the gallant officer escaped unharmed, although his clothes were repeatedly torn by the defenders' shot. Another equally daring attempt was made by Major White, A. D. C. to General John Sullivan, when he ran under a window with a firebrand. Discovered by a British soldier he was shot dead through the basement window. The Medals sometimes bear the name of the 40th Regiment. The dies by Milton, and issued in silver as a rule. The medal is quite remarkable as being one of the very few awards made for service in the American Revolution. It seems strange so few such medals were awarded.

Captain Thomas Whiteside, of the Lancaster Co. Militia, a great-great grandfather of Thomas L. Elder, was present in this battle. The name of Thomas descended from this same officer to the writer.

IT IS WELL THEY ARE PLENTIFUL.

The mighty Alexander, "Magnus," of Macedon, was the greatest monarch, so far as coin-makers are concerned, in the ancient Greek world. Wherever ancient coins are found, issued by Greece, we find Alexander tetradrachms and drachms. This bold conqueror is said to have had at one time fifteen hundred mints busy striking his coins. Of course some of these coin mints may have been managed by only one or two persons. Alexander called to his coin workshops some of the finest artists of antiquity. Who has not seen and admired the beautiful Hercules in lion's skin, which adorns his silver? Or who has not been moved by the figure of the great Zeus seated in dignified repose on the chair on the reverse. The mint-marks and subtypes are almost numberless. It must have tested the imagination of the ancient artists to bring forth such an innnmerable array of cunning marks, objects, figures and monograms such as are found adorning the field of his coins. The relief work varies, with some of lofty style. On certain issues the reverses seem to have been made by different artists than the obverses, and in others are distinctly oriental, even Persian in treatment. The smaller drachms show a delicate feeling at times impressive in subtle beauty. The tetradrachm Zeus occasionally suggests the figure of the traditional Christ of three centuries later. The didrachm is a rare avis, seldom met with. We have seen but one or two in twenty-five years. Mr. Newell doubtless has seen more. His collection of Alexander coins is undoubtedly unsurpassed and the largest in the country and numbers several thousand. He has written a book on the subject which is the accepted authority. It is well for the collecting world and for the world of art that many varieties of the Alexander coins are easy to obtain, for a moderate price. Alexander's gold coinage is beautiful and the most noted is the stater with head of Pallas and the Victory standing. The coin is not nearly so common as the tetradrachm, still it is comparatively easy to get.

PASSING OF AN OLD-TIME COIN COLLECTOR.

David Proskey Dies After a Brief Illness on August 15th.

We are sorry to announce the death of David Proskey, the veteran dealer and collector. He was seventy-five years of age, one of the best posted men on coins in our midst, and one of the oldest coin dealers in the country. Surely no one among the collectors loved coins and medals more than Mr. Proskey and many noted collections passed through his hands. He made the noted Parmelee Sale catalog and others and conducted the sales. He kept fine collections of his own, refusing to part with prized specimens which he had held and admired for many years. He was born in Croton Falls, N. Y. in 1853, and leaves several children, and a wife. He was a member of some of the societies. Mr. Proskey was active in the New York Numismatic Club in former years, but on moving to the country found it less easy to attend the meetings. For forty years or more he conducted the New York Coin & Stamp Company. Mr. Proskey moved along with him to the country, when he retired from New York, probably twenty van-loads of various antiques, paintings, bronzes, bric-a-brac and the like. It was one of the largest assemblages of its kind in the country. We extend to the family our condolences on the death of this noted collector. He was well known and his face will be missed at the meetings and sales. One may well ask the question, who is to take the places of such collectors as Messrs. Proskey and Ryder, not to mention the large company who have already passed on? The connecting links between us and the dim past in American numismatics grow weak to the breaking point, and very few old-timers, who are active in collecting, are left with us. The writer would like to know who is the oldest active collector in our midst. Will any one past the seventy year mark please write and tell us.

WE CAN SERVE YOU WELL.

Our last sale, held at the end of June, was a fine success. Henry McAleenan, Jr. expressed himself as well pleased with the results of our cataloguing and sale of his collection. The best offer he got for the coins was around $2,200. We got over $4,200 for them at the sale. This was only a section of the sale, which included the Titchener Collection. The Titchener portion brought about $2,700. The professor's collection would have done better had the coins justified higher prices, but we were praised both for the catalog and for the results obtained.

We commence the present season with a fine sale, and ask you to send us your collections or duplicates for our sales. Dig out your extra U. S. Gold, Private Gold, U. S. Silver, Colonials, U. S. Cents or Half Cents and so on and express them to us and get prompt service and returns. We are well equipped to take care of collections of any size. Our first sale was held in 1903, and we have been going strong ever since. Two years after our first sale, in Pittsburg, we removed to New York, where our public sales were begun in 1905.

THE MILLER COLLECTION OF ROMAN COINS.

This magnificent sale was held by us on May 26th, 27th, 28th and 29th, 1920. It was remarkable as having 950 lots of Roman coins, probably the finest collection ever offered in the country, certainly the most varied. But that was not all, the Anglo-Saxon, British and American Colonial Series were very fine indeed. The plate catalog, of which Mr. Elder has two bound copies, contained twenty-eight plates. These include Mr. Elder's own copy and another he obtained at his sale of the Bement collection of Books. The catalog contained 2212 lots, and sold for around $10,000. Strange to relate, our last sale, held in June, brought more than the Miller Collection, although not nearly as important. The Miller sale of Roman and English coins was the second important offering which we made for Mr. Miller, who had always been a staunch supporter of Mr. Elder. The first sale of importance was held about 1916, with the Miller cent and half cent collection. These sold for about $10,000 and included the proof half cent of 1796, purchased by Mr. Newcomb at that sale, for a world's record of over $700. These facts are all undeniable evidence of our ability to handle big and fine things in the line of Numismatics. Don't forget our record of $3,000 for a half eagle of 1815, realized about 1911, at one of our sales on East Twenty-Third Street. A dramatic incident thereupon occurred, when Wayte Raymond rose in the sale room and said, "I'll give $2,900 for another one just like it."

THE FIRST MEDALLIC ALLUSIONS TO AMERICA.

The coins of Flanders struck by Charles V., in 1519, are said to contain the first reference to America, when he changed the motto Non Plus Ultra to Plus Ultra. He abdicated in October, 1555. We find among the medals of Philip II, one dated 1556. Obv., Philippus, Hispaniar. Et Novi Orbis Occidi Rex (Philip, King of Spain and of the New Western World). Bust of the king armoured to left. Rx., Imp. Caes. Carolus. V. Avg. Laureated bust of the Emperor to right, in armour. Both Heiss, Von Loon and Betts refer to this highly interesting piece, which is listed by Betts as No. 1, on page 2. These are important numismatic facts to be remembered by American collectors.
